*Programs designed
Just for you!*

Registration begins June 1

Tween and Teen Travelogue Using VoiceThread

No later than Monday, July 11, bring pics to Dawn of worldly vacation spots you've visited or places you hope to travel to. Learn how to use VoiceThread to narrate your own slideshow and story with this free web-based tool on Tuesday, July 12, 1:00 – 2:30

Aussie Funk Jam Workshop Ages 8-17

Cool, funky, unique. Participants learn how to play the didgeridoo. Using branches of a eucalyptus tree that has been naturally hollowed out by termites, Australians have been making these instruments for over 40,000 years. The didgeridoo played at this workshop is made from different materials than the Aboriginal versions, but will be just as amazing.
Saturday, July 23, 12:15 – 1:15

Strange Island Mystery (Practices and Performance)

You are stuck on Strange Island, a deserted place. Unexplained night-time sights and sounds make a group of Young Adventurers fear a gruesome beast lives there. Are they really in trouble or is someone orchestrating a sophisticated hoax? What happens next? Be a part of the cast or an audience member to solve this mystery. Rehearsals and "show." Open to all teens and tweens. Sign up to be a performer, to help with props, or to reserve your spot as a guest (audience member). Friday, August 12, rehearsal for cast members at 1:00; play performance for friends, family, and public at 2:00.
Fridays, July 22, 29, August 5, August 12. 1:00 – 2:30.

Chess Instruction

A strategic board game played worldwide will be taught by renowned chess master, Alex Braylovskiy. Participants are asked to bring their own chess set and try to attend all sessions as the instruction will build on prior days' lessons. Back by popular demand. Open to ages 7-17. Limited space. Register early beginning June 1.
August 1-5, 4:00 – 5:00

Mission: Africa

This program is inspired by the SWAT (Secret World Adventure Team) series of books, which features a group of kids solving the world's weird occurrences. African elephants are in constant danger from poachers who find their tusks extremely valuable. Try carving tusks out of soap. Watch clips of elephants painting original art. Simulate the experience by using paper towel rolls taped together to form a trunk. A paintbrush will be attached to the end of the trunk and we will attempt to create our own elephant paintings.
Tuesday, August 9, 1:00 – 2:00

First 30 to register in person will receive a free browsing bag.

A red tote bag with a white compass rose on the left and the text "YOU ARE HERE" in white capital letters on the right. The bag is filled with various items, including a yellow book with "50 W" on the cover, a red book, and other miscellaneous items.
